Bethel and Individual Contests

Car decorating:

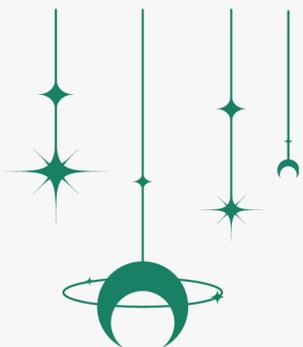

Arrive to Mini Session in style by creating your “mystical” or “magical” vehicles! Use your imagination and creativity! Please post photos of your creations on the Missouri JDI Bulletin Board; make sure to tag GBHQ Alé. Winners will be announced at dinner!

Centerpiece Creation:

Create a new character that you think would be in the “Studio Ghibli” film family (Ex. Totoro, Kiki/Gigi, Ashitaka, Ponyo). This can be created with any appropriate materials, but cannot be wider than 12 inches or taller than 24 inches. Create a name for your character and a short story about your character to be turned in with your centerpiece. Winners will be announced at dinner!

Bethel Skit:

We are asking all Bethels to put together a 5 minute silly and magical skit to perform. It can be any theme the Members want - as long as it is magical. Feel free to use costumes in your skit!

Essays:

All submissions will be due March 1, 2026 to mograndbethel@gmail.com

Jobie-to-bee, 6-9 years old:

Kiki is a teenage witch whose job is to deliver mail and gifts all around the world. Kiki decides to take a break and let you take over her deliveries. Where is one place in the world that you would like to go and deliver a gift? 100+ words

Junior, 10-13 years old:

The Studio Ghibli slogan is "Where imagination begins." If you were to create your own imaginary world, what would your world look like? 250+ words

Intermediate, 14-16 years old:

In the movie "When Marnie Was There," the character Anna is constantly feeling left out at school and never speaks up or shows emotion. If you were to meet Anna, how would you help her overcome her struggles with socializing with others? 300+ words

Senior, 17-19 years old:

A common theme in Studio Ghibli films is that family is worth fighting for. For example, 'Up on Poppy Hill' shows that family doesn't need to be blood-related, as long as people have love and respect towards each other. Who is someone who you consider your family even though you may not be related to them, and why? 350+ words

GB Majority, 20-25 years old:

The movie 'Princess Mononoke' is a film that tackles complex themes of nature, human conflict, and the importance of environmentalism. If you could choose one theme or genre to describe your life, what would it be? 350+ words
